

Mr. Garrison -

This came in yesterday.

It might be called a
"OLITE BRUSH-BEE" - or it could be "HONEST".

Under ordinary circumstances the answer is satisfactory - but we have a security angle which has not been fully considered, in that the "FOCAL POINT" could get charged and then due to security, the remainder of the [REDACTED] would not be of much help.

I do not feel that we will get anywhere, unless we can show that our requirements are not being met.
